CUBICLE CAROLS: HAZARDS OF THE SEASON

Secret Santa (tune: "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus")

*I saw Tommy kissing Sandra Ross
At the office party Thursday night
They didn't see me stare
As I caught them unaware
They thought that I was passed out
Near the coat rack by the stair*

*But I saw Tommy groping Sandra Ross
Tom's our boss, he knows that that's not right
Oh he's gonna freak, I know
When he sees my video
I should have a raise by Monday night*

Season's Ratings (tune: "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town")

*You better look sharp
Productive as heck
The boss has got forms piled up to his neck
Time for our performance reviews*

*They've gotta be done
Before the year ends
Here's the stuff on which HR depends
Time for our performance reviews*

*Meet with a dozen people
And look for things to praise
You better motivate them 'cause
There's no budget for a raise*

*So ready or not
(for) the yearly routine
Turn on the old appraisal machine
Time for our performance reviews.*
